

SEASONAL MAINE RECIPE

WITH ORGANIC AND LOCAL INGREDIENTS

Spicy Beef and Beans

Organic ground meat produced in Maine can be enjoyed year round. This is an easy, versatile recipe for all ages. Serve with corn chips or corn bread and salad, or roll the beef and beans in a tortilla with rice and sour cream.

- 1 lb. ground beef or other ground meat
- 1-1/2 c. cooked beans (black beans, kidney beans, soldier beans) *
- 1 onion, chopped
- 2 garlic cloves, chopped
- 1-1/2 c. salsa
- 1/4 c. chopped hot or jalapeño peppers, to taste (use gloves when chopping)
- 1 Tbsp. oil for sautéing meat
- salt and pepper to taste
- 1/2 c. grated cheddar cheese

In a fry pan, sauté onion and chopped garlic in oil. Add ground meat, cooking and stirring until done. Drain fat from pan. In a large bowl, mix together meat and cooked beans. Stir in salsa. Add hot peppers if desired. Add salt and pepper to taste. Spoon mixture into oven-proof casserole dish. Top with grated cheese. Bake at 350 F until bubbly, and cheese is melted, about 20 to 30 minutes.

Makes 6 servings. Nutritional analysis per serving: 354 calories, 26 g protein, 16 g carbohydrates, 20 g fat (0 g trans fat), 214 mg sodium, 5 g fiber.

* Instead of canned beans, try cooking your own. About 3/4 c. dry beans will make 1-1/2 c. cooked beans. Soak dry beans in a large pot for several hours. Drain the water. Cover the beans with water and simmer (do not boil rapidly) until the beans are just tender – 2 or more hours, depending upon the bean. Add water as needed. Once they are just cooked, drain and cool. Pack into glass jars and freeze for later use. This method is more economical and avoids the high sodium content of commercially canned beans – as well as the toxic lining of many cans.

Secret Chocolate Cake

Ask folks if they can taste the "secret" ingredient in this cake.

Beets add a depth and richness to the chocolate. This cake is so good it doesn't need frosting! Adapted from a recipe in "Simply in Season."

2 c. cooked beets
1/2 c. applesauce (no sugar, no spice)

1/2 c. baking cocoa

1-1/2 tsp. vanilla

Puree in the food processor until smooth. Set aside.

1 c. sugar

1/2 c. butter at room temperature

1/2 c. maple syrup

1/2 c. plain yogurt

3 eggs

In the bowl of your electric mixer, cream the butter and the sugar.

Beat in eggs, maple syrup and yogurt. Add pureed beet mixture.

Beat for about 90 seconds.

Makes 24 servings. Nutritional analysis per serving: 172 calories, 3.5 g protein, 27 g carbohydrates, 6 g fat, 132 mg sodium, 3 g fiber. Good source of trace minerals manganese and selenium.

2-1/2 c. whole meal flour, or substitute whole wheat flour*

1-1/2 tsp. baking soda

1 tsp. cinnamon

1/2 c. chocolate chips

Whisk together flour, baking soda and cinnamon and gently mix into the beet mixture.

Stir in chocolate chips. Spoon mixture into greased 9- x 13-inch pan. Bake in preheated 350 F oven until a toothpick comes out clean, about 40 minutes. Cool on a rack.

* Whole meal flour contains all three components (bran, germ and endosperm) of the wheat berry. Wheat germ in freshly ground wheat adds a nutty flavor and is a concentrated source of vitamins, minerals and proteins. The best way to get whole meal flour is to grind your own.
